Host City promotion: Tourist attractions

Uganda the Pearl of Africa, the championship is being hosted in Entebbe Municipality

- A town on a peninsula in Lake Victoria in the vicinity of Entebbe International Airport.
- Surrounded by the biggest lake in Africa with a variety of delicious fish species.
- Get an opportunity to visit Ngamba Island a Chimpanzee Sanctuary in the vicinity that protects orphaned chimps.
- The extensive National Botanical Gardens, laid out in 1898, are located in Entebbe where you will enjoy diverse plants, birds, all kinds of trees and monkeys.
- Entebbe is the home of the Uganda Virus Research Institute (UVRI)
- Entebbe is the location of the Uganda Wildlife Education Centre UWEC. The centre also serves as the national zoo. The entrance to the centre is located near the jetty. Foreign visitors have noted the seeming incongruity of wild monkeys sitting in the trees over the centre's paths; the Wildlife Education Centre protects native animals in wetland, forest and savannah habitats.
- Entebbe is the location of Nkumba University, one of the more than thirty licensed institutions of tertiary education in Uganda.
- State House, the official residence of the President of Uganda, is located in Entebbe.
- Entebbe is also home to one of the historical site in Kigungu where the first catholic missionaries Brother Amans and Father Mon Maple Lourdel landed to establish the catholic faith in Uganda.

Climate - Weather during event

Entebbe experiences tropical rainforest climate, (Af) according to the Köppen climate classification as the city has no real dry season throughout the year.

Uganda has a buffet type of weather which is either wet, dry hot cool or cold; participants will have a mixture of winter, autumn spring and summer but all of them with normal temperatures.

The city is endowed with packaged night life ranging from disco nights, live bands, cinemas and live dram shows.

Boat rides, windsurfing, fishing and a couple of beach games.

The list is endless and is determined by your choice.
